our presenter

Larry Hoekman has an M.A. in Psychology and has worked almost four decades in public and Christian education as a school counselor for K-12 students. He has coached for 26 years, primarily basketball and tennis, and provides leadership for the Central Coast Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Larry serves with Coaches Team Intl., a sports ministry to Asia, and has traveled to China and to South and North Korea as a coach and chaplain. He also ministers and speaks to youth, men, young couples, and the homeless. For years, he has posted a daily devotional blog (God2me.wordpress.com).

Larry and his wife, Linda, live in Nipomo, California and have two adult married children and four grandchildren. In addition, Larry has interviewed hundreds of grandparents about their experiences. You can find more information at his website: godlygrandparenting.com.

grandparents...

...join us for a life-changing seminar designed especially for you. Capture from Scripture God's vision for the family and your role as a grandparent. Create a Grandparenting Guide for each of your precious grandchildren and learn practical tools to be proactive and intentional as you interact with your kids and grandkids.

Come learn how to:

- Effectively impact the heart, soul, and mind of your grandkids.
- Be more intentional and purposeful as a godly grandparent.
- Leave a grandparenting legacy to impact your grandkids for eternity.
- Make intentional and godly memories.
