The Lame Man Walks

Acts 3:1-16

A Lame Man

Once there was a man who couldn't walk. His legs were lame. That means they didn't work. This poor man couldn't even stand up.

Every day the lame man sat by the Temple. The Temple was the place where many people went to pray and learn about God. As people walked into the Temple, the man asked them for money so that he could buy food.

Peter and John

One day Jesus' friends Peter and John walked up the hill to the Temple. Peter and John heard someone call, "Please give me some money." They stopped. They looked down. They saw the lame man sitting on the ground.

Peter and John knew God's Word said to help others. They wanted to help the man. "I have no money," Peter said, "but I do have something to give you." Peter reached out and took the man's hand. Peter said, "In the name of Jesus, stand up and walk!" He pulled the man to his feet.

A Happy Man

Suddenly, the lame man's feet and legs were strong! The man began to walk! Then the man began to skip and jump and hop and RUN! He was so happy!

The man went jumping and running into the Temple with Peter and John. The man told everyone what had happened. "Thank You, God! I can walk," said the man.

Amazed People

The people at the Temple saw the man walking. They thought Peter and John had made the man walk. But Peter told them, "We did not make this man walk. Jesus made his legs strong." Peter told all those people about Jesus. And the man who now could walk learned about Jesus, too.

Conclusion

The lame man was so glad that Peter and John had obeyed God's Word and helped him. We can obey God's Word and help others, too.
