

Worship And Transformation Time

Hi Everyone!

Hope you're staying cool and getting a break from school. I'm thankful for air conditioning when it's 100+ outside. It must have been so miserable before a/c was invented!

Are you all enjoying the On-Line Sunday School- it's a lot of fun. You should check it out if you haven't. It's been fun seeing some of you participate in it- good job!

6th grade graduates- we'll have to postpone any in person celebrations for now, but each one of you is special and we are all so happy to see you grow and mature in the Lord. We are thankful for each one of you and have warned TIGS to look out for you!

Have a great
